They immediately proceeded to the scene of the money changing and scooped the whole push, old craps included.

They arrested Albert Wilson, James Smith, Hiram Gifford, William Waits, William Whaley, John Bennett, Walker Reed, William Self, Andy Thomas, William Hunter, George McPheeters and a fellow who goes by the name of Wilson and Gibbs both.

The Crowds Come and the Crowds Go, All a Merry Lot.

ILLNESS OF MISS BRADLEY.

GLEN SPRINGS, August 3, 1899.

Correspondence Public Ledger.

They come and they go; and as fast as one "set" departs another arrives to swell the list of visitors.

This morning Miss Anna Pearce's "House Party" was booked to leave for home; but last evening Miss Christine Bradley was taken ill. This necessitated a change in program, and Mrs. Bradley, Mr. Edwin E. Pearce and Mr. J. G. Rodman remain to care for Miss Bradley. A physician was summoned from Vaneburg, and while the young lady was for a time quite ill she is now greatly improved and will be ready in a day or so to leave for home.

You will observe from the list of guests Maysville is very much in evidence, though there are a few good people here from other places—and they all like the treatment the "Walker boys" give them.

Come up, join the crowd and have a good time. T. A. D.

During the Civil War, as well as in our late War with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Strictly pure Paris Green, the kind that kills, at Chenoweth's Drugstore.

DAMAGE SUITS.

Soon to Be Filed at Portsmouth Against the C. and O. Railway.

The Portsmouth Blade says a well known attorney of that city has had placed in his hands two damage suits against the C. and O. Railroad, and is now engaged in drawing up the petitions. The suits grow out of the excursion run by that road to Cincinnati.

The tickets read as good only on special trains, but it was stated in advertisements in the papers and by the Railway Agents that they would be good returning from Cincinnati on the fast train leaving there at 9:10 Sunday night.

When the excursionists boarded this train the conductor refused to accept their tickets, and several of them were put off.

The damage suits will be filed in a few days, and will be pushed.

Ironton parties who had the same experience will also bring suit.

ELECTRIC PARK.

An Enjoyable Program to Be Presented at This Delightful Resort.

To be sure of giving the Park patrons their money's worth and in addition to the vaudeville program presented, the celebrated Maysville Orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Bullett will render a delightful program this evening.

The Orchestra's program will be: Overture—"Americus"—Voeiker March—"Topsy's in Town"—Crosby Waltz—"Amour-del-Cour"—Snider Overture—"The Winner"—Makil March—"A. Adams Dream"—Barnard "Doc Brown's Cakewalk"—Johnson Finale—"Star Spangled Banner."

The pianist, (by apology) who annoyed the patrons and performers last night by his presence and blunders, will not repeat the operation. He is silent and departed. The management, while apologizing most sincerely for the imposition worked upon last night's audience and itself, assures the patrons of the Park and the public in general that such a contingency shall not arise again. From this time forward a thoroughly competent performer will preside at the piano.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN!

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Keystone State will lay up at Cincinnati. Richard Applegate has resigned as engineer of the Dave Wood, and Jefferson Mummy of Parkersburg has taken his place.

The rapid decline in the Ohio is compelling the boats to stop one at a time until there will be nothing but mud scows running after awhile.

The Louisville Dispatch says: "Farmers along the upper river are now going out behind the barn and cursing themselves because they have nothing to ship while the rate war is on. It is too early for hogs and too late for garden truck."

The Pilots' wage scale has been presented to all owners of towboats and is now in force. The Pilots who have not been hired for the season declare that they will not turn the wheel of a towboat unless the scale prices are paid. The Pilots want $200 a round trip to Louisville, an advance of $50 a trip. Most of the coal operators say they will not pay the scale rates, and others say they have already hired their Pilots for the season. There are about 125 towboats at Pittsburgh, and fully forty of these will go to Cincinnati and Louisville on the first shipping stage. The Pilots hired for the season will, it is said, work at the wages they were hired for, but after the contract is up they will demand the scale prices.
